Tolkien Art Contest

Liverpool Hope University is pleased to announce that it is sponsoring a Tolkien inspired art contest. The finalist entries will be judged by Alan Lee, the Academy Award winning leading Concept Artist for The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit films. Alan Lee will speak at the upcoming Tolkien Day on the 11th of November, 2016, an event celebrating J.R.R Tolkien's connection to Liverpool Hope University.

- The contest is open to full time students aged 16-19 years old.
- All submissions must be original pieces of artwork based upon or inspired by Tolkien's literature.
- Submissions cannot be copies (or tracings) of photographs, movie stills or other published illustrations.
- Submissions must be two-dimensional works (paintings, drawings and graphic design images) based upon the books or films.
- The deadline for submissions is Friday 14th of October 2016. Submissions can be sent to Tolkien Art Contest, Department of English, Liverpool Hope University, Hope Park, Liverpool, L16 9JD. Submissions can also be sent via email to tolkienartcontest@hope.ac.uk. Please take a good quality photograph of your artwork if submitting through email. In addition, include your full name, university or school, age and email address. If you would like your artwork returned, you can collect your artwork at the Tolkien Day. Alternatively, you can include a self-addressed and stamped envelope with your submission.
- Submissions may be featured in the event programme.

The Tolkien Day is free and open to the public. If you are interested in attending, details will be posted on the Liverpool Hope English Department website shortly.
